This program, based on the national initiative Every Child Ready to Read, teaches parents and caregivers how to support the early literacy development of their children through book suggestions, shared reading, and fun designed to support the 6 early literacy skills and their 5 practices.

Preference given to UFSD #22 residents.
You must use your child’s library card to register.