Hands Across the Table (1935)

Tuesday, April 21 at 2PM

Not Rated    80 Minutes

Stars: Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray

A loafer and a manicurist, both planning to marry money, meet and form an uneasy alliance.
Carla Campbell receives maintenance payment from three former soldiers who all believe themselves to be the father of her daughter, Gia.

When assassin Philip Raven shoots a blackmailer and his beautiful female companion dead, he is paid off in marked bills by his treasonous employer who is working with foreign spies.

Thrown out of the Riviera, a family of card sharks meets a lonely, vulnerable rich old woman and insinuate themselves into her life while they sponge off her.