Trapeze (1956)

Tuesday, June 23 at 2PM

Not Rated    106 Minutes

Stars: Burt Lancaster and Tony Curtis

A crippled circus acrobat is torn emotionally between two ambitious young trapeze artists, one a talented young American and a less-gifted but beautiful Italian.
Peanuts White, a burlesque comic, is recruited by U.S. agents to impersonate international spy Eric Augustine in a mission to purchase a million-dollar microfilm in mysterious, exotic Tangier.

Based on a real-life case in 1925, two great lawyers argue the case for and against a science teacher accused of the crime of teaching evolution.

A gang of con artists disguise themselves as clerics in order to pull off a job, but soon find that even pretending to be religious people is having an effect on them.